

LIGHT RECEIPTS OVER HOLIDAY

SCH. ALOMA, LAST SWORDER,
HOME WITH SMALL SWORD-
FISH FARE.

Receipts of fresh fish over the week-end and holiday were rather light, being confined chiefly to the landings of gill netters. The dragger Raymonde arrived Sunday night with a small fare of mixed fish for the General Seafoods corporation, and the swordfisherman Aloma, the last one of her kind fishing, came in with a trip of swordfish, which she took out at John Chianciola's. The Maine packet Mattie came up the coast with about 18,000 quintals of salt fish. Most of the mackerel fleet sailed yesterday and if there is still any fish showing, the next few days should see some arrivals of this fish both here and at Boston:
